

Roger Waters - When The Wind Blows

When The Wind Blows 30th October 1986

“Hilda's Dream” (Waters)

(Radio:) "Radio Four, with the news at 1 o'clock this Thursday lunchtime. The Prime Minister, speaking a few minutes ago in the House of Commons, has warned that the international situation is deteriorating rapidly and that war could break out at any time in the next two or three days".

(Man:) "Cripes! This is it ducks! This is really it!"

(Woman:) "I shouldn't worry too much, it'll probably all blow over".
